

DISCUSSION OF APPROPRIATION BILLS POSTPONED

Army and Navy Bills Will Not be Discussed in Senate Until After Disarmament Meet.

TWO REASONS ARE GIVEN FOR SUCH POSTPONEMENT

One Reason is Because Success or Failure of Armament Meet May Dictate Material Change

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—Senator Reed, speaking on the pending tax bill, charged Budget Director Dawes with "impudent usurpation of legislative authority" in cutting down congressional appropriations. The house appropriations committee meanwhile virtually decided to postpone the discussions of the big army and navy appropriation bills, providing funds for armament work, until after the conference. Two reasons were given for such postponement. First—To prevent embarrassment to the administration during the arms parley, and second, because the success or failure of the disarmament conference may dictate material changes. Congress has until late in June to pass the 1922 appropriations. Senators Borah and Pomerene, both believe such a suspension of armament preparations will make excellent impression upon the world.

DELEGATES TO GRAIN GROWERS CONVENTION WAGE BITTER FIGHT

Debate Whether to Exclude Dealers Accepting Co-operative Grain at Elevators.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—The question of the farmers cooperative grain marketing societies caused a bitter fight among the delegates to the grain dealers national association convention. Spirited debates among the delegates on whether they should exclude from the organization all dealers accepting the cooperative society grain at their elevators. They launched a movement to amend the by-laws expelling and member accepting cooperative grain.

PROPOSALS FOR CITY IMPROVEMENTS DISCUSSED BY JUDGE PHELPS BEFORE PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS CLUB; CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY CHINA PHEASANT FEED

Members of the Progressive Business Club at their weekly luncheon today disposed of a large supply of China pheasants bagged by members yesterday and likewise listened to an informal talk by G. W. Phelps, chairman of the city planning commission. The judge devoted his talk to the special election to be held November 21 and to the question of just what improvement projects should be submitted to the people at that time. "Pendleton occupies a strategic position," said the speaker. "We are one day's travel from Portland, from Boise and from Spokane. During 1925 we are going to be hosts to a tremendous volume of travel and personally I feel it will be wise to prepare for the future. As an average taxpayer I am very much in favor of going ahead for a town cannot stand still anymore than can an individual."

Judge Phelps presented charts showing the Pendleton tax levy to be lower than that of any town of its size in the state and also the bonded indebtedness to be correspondingly low. The program as outlined by Judge Phelps calls for purchasing a site for and constructing a septic tank for improving the property to be purchased in the west end of town, to buy other property for auto camp purposes and to erect a municipal auditorium. He particularly asked for advice on the subject of whether the proposal for an auditorium be submitted at this time. Following the address by Judge Phelps the matter was informally discussed and some figures relative to increased taxation in Oregon were presented by Dr. E. W. Vincent.

The national meeting of Progressive Business Clubs is to be held in Modesto, Calif., later in this month and Pendleton is asked to send a representative. The matter was left with the board of managers.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TODAY HAVE SOME EXAMINATIONS TO PASS WHICH WERE UNKNOWN IN THEIR PARENTS' DAYS

Miss Susie Pendleton and Master Johnnie Pendleton this year will have some examinations to pass which were undreamed of in days when their fathers and mothers went to school. These examinations will be two in number and will have to do with physical condition. The first one of the school year is being made now, and again before the conclusion of the year's work next spring, a second examination will be made. Separate examinations for girls and boys, with a different table of questions, are being held now. Miss Eva Hansen is in charge of the work in the grades and she has charge of the girls in the high school. Richard Hanley is conducting the work for all the boys in the high school. Measurements of the pupils are being taken now, together with their weights, and other vital information is being gathered. This information will be tabulated, and where corrective measures are needed to build up the health of pupils, special training will be given. The second examination near the close of the year will show the results that have been attained during the year's training. Attention to physical development has been given in the Pendleton schools during previous years, but Supt. H. E. Inlow is confident that the program for this year will prove much more beneficial than the training which has been given heretofore. At present there are three periods of 45 minutes each given over to physical training in the high school, and the grade pupils have one period each day. EVIDENCE FOUND MAY RESULT IN NEW TRIAL FOR JAMES MAHONEY SEATTLE, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—Alleged new evidence, discovered in the case of James Mahoney, convicted last Saturday night of first degree murder of his aged wife, Kate Mahoney, may result in a new trial, it developed today when the defense attorneys filed a petition for a new trial in the Superior Court. The motion for a new trial will be argued Saturday.

TESTIMONY STARTS IN CASE OF MRS. LYDIA SOUTHARD

Witnesses Claim Fourth Husband of Alleged 'Bluebeard-ess' Suffered Much Agony.

PUTS FLYPAPER IN SAUCER; MEYERS DIES SOON AFTER

State is Attempting to Prove She Killed Meyer to Collect $10,000 Insurance Money.

TWIN FALLS, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—Witnesses testifying against Mrs. Lydia Southard, the alleged "Bluebeard-ess" who is on trial for the murder of her fourth husband, Edward Meyer, declared that Meyer was in agony most of the time before his death. They related how Mrs. Southard brought poison flypaper home, placed it in a saucer with water and how Meyer died soon after. One neighbor testified that Mrs. Southard, then Mrs. Meyer apparently was unworried during her husband's last illness. The state is attempting to prove that she killed Meyer to collect $10,000 insurance money. Former Roommate Testifies E. B. Squire, Meyer's room mate at Blue Lakes ranch previous to his marriage with Mrs. Southard, was the first witness to be called. He testified that Meyer suffered torments during his last illness, especially in his stomach. He could not eat, had cramps and was frequently taken with severe pains that almost caused convulsions. Squire's testimony confirms that of Mrs. Carrie Howe, of Muscatine, Iowa, who yesterday repeated what Mrs. Southard had told her concerning her husband's illness. Mrs. Howe testified that Mrs. Southard, when Meyer became very ill, said "We'll call a doctor, then nobody can say anything." All the witnesses testified that Mrs. Southard was very unwilling to have Meyer taken to a hospital. Cranville Haight finally had Meyer removed to the hospital on his own initiative.

NEW YORK IS BASEBALL MAD; SEATS ARE ALL SOLD FOR OPENING GAME

First World's Series Game Between Giants and Yanks is Slated for Tomorrow. NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—An eager-eyed army of baseball fans are sweeping down Broadway from all over the country, chewing the sport and quarter cigars until the first game opens tomorrow. They filled the lobbies of the big hotels, discussing the two leading questions: The worlds Series participants, and "Where can you get a drink?" One whole room is set aside with 400 typewriters and desks for the sporting men "covering" the series for the nation's papers. Little betting is in evidence, although several big bets are reported from Wall street. NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—With the first world's series game between the Giants and the Yanks slated for tomorrow, New York is baseball mad. Fans are dividing their time making and taking bets on the "home teams" with the problem of how to get into the Polo grounds to see the games. The league presidents are snowed under with telegrams asking for reservations, but the club grounds are actually so small there will be few proportionately able to see the battles. All the seats have been sold already, with the fans facing the alternative of being scalped by scalpers or standing in long lines before the gates before the run rises. Both teams are in fine fettle and ready to play. The umpires have been picked, new uniforms made and ground rules agreed upon. Teams Are Hard Up for Pitchers Both teams are hard up for pitchers. McGraw has Arthur Nehf but the Yanks have treated better pitchers than Nehf to a trade of hits, Phil Douglas may hurl for the Giants in the second game. Fred Toney, Jess Barnes, Ryah and Shea cannot be counted on. Slim Sallee is too old to be a starter. Manager Huggins for the Yanks has Mays as their prize donna, with Shawkey, complaining of a sore arm all season. Harry Harper, young and erratic, Jack Quinn is nearly through, and Collins and Piercy cannot be used to start. McGraw is a great believer in pitchers as the deciding factors in the series battle, while Huggins as usual is saying nothing. Games Call for Two O'clock. All games are scheduled to start at two o'clock eastern time, corresponding to 11 o'clock Pacific time.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER TO SELECT BODY OF UNKNOWN SOLDIER WHO WILL BE HONORED

CITY'S TENTATIVE PLANS FOR IMPROVEMENT TO BE DISCUSSED TONIGHT America's Unknown War Hero Will Find Honored Sepulchre in Arlington Natl. Cemetery.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—(A. P.)—America's unknown soldier who will find an honored sepulchre in the Arlington national cemetery, Virginia, will be selected by a non-commissioned officer, from the American forces on the Rhine at Chalons-Sur-Marne, October 24. The body will leave La Havre on October 25 on the cruiser Olympia. The bodies of the unidentified soldiers who fell in actual fighting, one from each of the four prominent American cemeteries in France, will be assembled near the railway station. A non-commissioned officer, selected by General Allen, will then be ordered to place his hand on one of the four coffins. Same Catafalque Used WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(A. P.)—When the body of the unknown soldier to be brought from France for burial November 11, is placed in the rotunda of the capitol November 9 to lie in state, the same catafalque used for ex-Presidents Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley will be used. McARDLE TRIAL STARTS TODAY CLEVELAND, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—The first witnesses in the trial of Marian McArdle, 29 years of age, charged with the murder of her stepfather, Daniel Kaber, was called today.

WELL KNOWN OREGON NEWSPAPER MAN NAMED MINISTER TO SIAM

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—(A. P.)—Edward E. Brodie of Oregon City, has been named minister to Siam. The selection of eight American ministers to the Latin-American and Old World countries were announced today, virtually completing the diplomatic roster of the new administration.

WOMAN IS ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH DEATH OF 8 MONTH OLD BABY

SEATTLE, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—Mrs. H. C. Osborn was jailed today as a result of the death last night of an eight-month-old baby entrusted to her care. Marks on the infants body testified to brutality, according to Prosecutor Carnovale, who says that Mrs. Osborn is at least partially responsible for the baby's death. They may try her for manslaughter. Neighbors reported seeing Mrs. Osborn beating the baby a week ago.

KU KLUX KLAN PARADE WILL BE PREVENTED

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—Chief of Police Bussey and Sheriff Tobin met the rumors of contemplated parades by the Ku Klux Klan with their announcement that they would use machine guns if necessary to prevent the Klansmen from parading. Meanwhile the grand jury is proceeding with the probe resulting from the affray at Lorena Saturday night. The first known moving picture was made in 1895.

BROOKLYN MAN ON TRANSCONTINENTAL AUTOMOBILE TOUR TELLS OF IMPROVEMENTS THAT WOULD BENEFIT CITY'S AUTO CAMP

Free firewood, tables on which to eat, an inside place for cooking if possible and a few wooden benches on which to sit are some of the improvements which could be made to the Pendleton camp grounds which would make the place more attractive to tourists, is an opinion expressed today by George A. Taber, Brooklyn man who with his wife and three sons were here on a transcontinental overland trip. The Tabers came from Brooklyn to Buhl, Idaho, with the caravan of homeseekers who left the eastern coast July 28 to seek homes in the West. They did not come as homeseekers, but chose to make the trip in company of the caravan, and on their long journey they have formed several opinions about what they personally like and what they do not like in the way of accommodations furnished by towns through which they have passed. Mr. Taber did not volunteer his opinions. They were asked by a reporter. Here are some of the comments he had to make. He smiled as he talked and gave the impression that he was merely expressing his opinion and not registering the "kicks" which are sometimes heard from the "tourist tramps" who ask a community to furnish everything except something to eat. "One of the things which we have appreciated most in a few of the places where we have stopped was tables on which to eat," he said. "We had them and benches, too, at Caspar, Wyoming and at Basin, Wyo., the camp was a dandy. At Boise we could cook under cover, but one disadvantage which we didn't have at Caspar was, we had to carry our food from the kitchen clear the length of the grounds to our own tent. As Caspar the cooking and eating could all be done under one roof. We appreciated that accommodation. It was the finest place from the point of view of tourists that we passed through. "I've always heard of Oregon as the state in the union having the greatest amount of timber, but this is the first place where we had for our fuel. We have been in any number of places where wood could not be secured, but this is the first place where we have bought it in the camp grounds. When we can't get wood, we use our gaso-

IRISH REPUBLICAN TROOPS PREPARE FOR POSSIBLE WAR

Hidden From Eyes of British 'Spies' Troops Drill in Heart of Irish Mountains.

PREMIER WOULD NOT TRY TO RECONCILE EXTREMISTS

Success of Conference Depends Upon People Using Common Sense Says Lloyd George.

DUBLIN, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—With the Sinn Fein statement preparing for the peace conference, the republican troops are preparing for the possible war. Hidden from the English "spies" the troops are drilling in the heart of the Irish mountains. Seven hundred Sinn Fein troops went through maneuvers well-learned in France. The men are declared to be in fine fighting trim. Speaks on Unemployment ENVERNESS, Scotland, Oct. 4.—(U. P.)—"The success of the forthcoming peace conference depends upon the delegates from both sides not trying to reconcile their extremists, but trusting to the people's common sense," Premier Lloyd George declared today in a speech on the unemployment situation in England.

'CORRECTIVE CLASS' IS FEATURE OF GYMNASTIC COURSE AT HIGH SCHOOL

Heretofore Students With Physical Defects Were Excused From Gymnastic Work. A "Corrective class," for all high school girls unable to take part in the regular gymnastic classes under the direction of Miss Eva Hansen, instructor in physical training, is a new feature of the department in Pendleton this year. Heretofore any student with a physical defect was excused from gymnastics, but the new plan provides for the study of the individual needs of each girl who is exempted from regular work, and gives her an opportunity for special training. Divided into Classes. The physical training work at high school, Miss Hansen states, is divided into formal Swedish gymnastics, formal German gymnastics, informal work and competitive games. With the corrective work, the physical training department of Pendleton high school will be on a par with that of the colleges and larger high schools of Oregon. Miss Hansen, who was graduated from the University of Oregon, was in charge of the work here last year also. Besides her experience in schools, she has had army experience in this line. Try-outs to Begin. Try-outs for the girls' class basketball will begin soon and Miss Hansen states that with the present material there should be exceptionally strong class teams. The coaching she states, will be very fundamental at first, gradually working up until the game is definitely known and played as a scientific game. The work of organizing the basketball team in the grade schools has been completed and practice has started. According to the material and the number out, basketball in the grades will be unusually interesting and well played this year, says Miss Hansen. Each female salmon yields approximately 3,500 eggs each year.
